

JULY 2008 HIGHLIGHTS

Please remember reservations are required for each and every program. Space is limited. Prices are listed per person. All fees must be paid in advance, by check or credit card, to BHV.

- Tues., July 2
8:00 - 9:30 am
- “Second Cup” hosts special guest Dean Stephen Griffin of Tulane Law School
Join us over coffee for this informal gathering to discuss the latest news with our special guest who is Vice Dean of Academic Affairs and Professor of Constitutional Law at Tulane University. He is the son of one of our members, Marianne Griffin.
Meet at Beacon Hill Bistro, 25 Charles Street. BHV members only.
- Wed., July 9
10:00 – 3:00 pm
- Tour Hammond Castle in Gloucester and have lunch at the famous Woodman’s
We venture to the Northshore for a guided tour of one of the most unique homes in America built by John Hays Hammond Jr. The castle functioned both as a home and as the site of the Hammond Research Corporation’s Laboratories. The Hammonds surrounded themselves with priceless artifacts from around the world. Afterwards we drive to Essex for lunch at Woodman’s, the historic seafood restaurant called a “Cult Classic” by Zagat. Eat in or outside (pay for own lunch)
Meet at Café Vanille, 70 Charles Street BHV members $50; non-members $75
- Mon., July 14
12:00 noon
- Lunch at Joe’s on the Waterfront and Walk thru Christopher Columbus Park
Located just steps away from Faneuil Hall Market Place, this waterfront restaurant overlooks the harbor and offers seating both indoor and outdoor. Afterward we will walk through the nearby Christopher Columbus Park which boasts some of the best views of Boston Harbor and has at its center a beautiful flowered cover arbor with benches.
Meet at the restaurant 100 Atlantic Avenue at 12:00 noon.
Each person pays on own. Members and non-members invited
- Wed., July 23
10:00 -1:00pm
- Summer Outing: Guided Tour of Castle Island and Lunch at Sullivan’s
Originally freestanding, Castle Island has been connected to the mainland since the 1930s, when streetcars brought bathers to Pleasure Bay. We will have a guided tour of Fort Independence and hear about island history as we view boating activity in Boston Harbor. Lunch at Sullivan’s, the famous old-fashion restaurant on the Island (pay for own lunch). Meet at Café Vanille, 70 Charles Street
BHV members $30; non-members $45
- Wed., July 30
6:00 – 8:30 pm
- Landmark Concert at THE HATCH SHELL, “The Rite of Spring”
Meet us at our usual spot in the front section of the Hatch Shell lawn on the side closest to Storrow Drive. We’ll enjoy a light dinner picnic and a free concert. (includes cost of our “picnic treats” and help with managing our chairs)
BHV members $20; non-members $35